Personal Notes

Introduction

We the 5th year Leaving Certificate Vocational Programme are delighted with the co-operation that we got from the Leaving Cert.'s for this yearbook, without their help we would not be able to make this a memorable book. We would also like to thank the staff of Scoil Mhuire for their kind co-operation. We hope that in reading this yearbook that you will remember all the good times you had and we hope that you will also remember those whom you left behind.

"Live the life you love and love the life you live."

For all of our friends - stay in touch - who else can you reminisce with about the "Good Old Day's" in the Convent of Mercy.

For loves past and present... it was, is, and always will be an experience.

For enemies - at least they won't see each other so things should improve!

Sit back, relax, enjoy and have a great laugh.

From the 5th Year L.C.V.P. class.

A note from:

The Year Head

My job as year Head of Leaving Cert varies from year to year. When there are "problems" I work hard. When the Leaving Certs are good my job is very easy so thank you, Leaving Certs of 98-99.

Every good luck for the future,
Con O'Brien

The Principal

Best wishes to the Leaving Cert class of 1998-99. Do keep in touch and let us know how you get on after leaving school.

Faoi bhrat Mhuire go raibh sibh,
Sr Margaret.

The Vice-Principal

I have taught some of the Leaving Certificate students Science, Chemistry and Biology since they have first arrived in scoil Mhuire in 1993 and 1994. Since I became Deputy Principal in 1996 I am glad to say that they have made my job task easy. When ever I am in company of teachers from other schools I always take great pride in letting them know that our students are a great credit to our school and to their parents.

Undoubtedly in my job I am bound to thread on someone's toes at some stage and I wish to say sorry if I have ever offended any student.

All that remains for me to say is that I wish the students the very best not only in the forthcoming Leaving Examination but also in their future lives and careers.

I would always be very glad to meet you back in Scoil Mhuire whenever you revisit Kanturk.
Noel Kelleher.

AWARDS

BIGGEST DOSSER:

"Willie O'Brien"

Willie's school week is Tuesday to Friday if we are lucky enough!

BIGGEST MESSER:

"Norita Duggan"

Are all leaders messers or are all messers leaders? Congrats Noddy!

PERSON MOST INTO SPORT:

"Paul Cotter"

"The Greatest Scrum-Half Artist of them all".

BEST HAIRDAY:

"Tommy Quaid"

Tommy won this award for keeping his "original" hair colour!

EMBARASSING MOMENT:

"Christine Brosnan" She walked into Centra with a knickers hanging off her bag!!

*SOUNDTEST
TEACHER:*

"Mr. Frank Thompson"

A question that is going through most of our minds is WHY, WHY, WHY!!!!!!
Only messing Mr.T.

STRICTEST TEACHER:

"Mrs. Margaret Kiely-Farrell"

Don't take it too hard Miss- we all love ya!

FUNNIEST PERSON:

"Mr. Pat Ryan" We wonder where he got his nick-name from?????

"Pat O'Connor" Well Pat, how funny were you when you had the incident with the "Guards".

FUNNIEST LAUGH:

"Jolene Ambrose" How could anyone ever forget her laugh!!!

BEST ENTERTAINER AT DEBS:

"Timmy Murphy" Perhaps his greatest entertainment feat was his antics on the dance-floor, movements one would attribute to Ronaldo rather than our humble Tim. His aimless ramblings and wild shouts were more like a Kerryman on crack rather than the Tim we have come to know so well. We eagerly await a repeat performance of our "hero" of the debs. That night established Tim as one of the more outstanding entertainers of our year.

APART

I often lie awake at night
While others are asleep,
No-one hears my sorrow,
No-one hears my weep.
You are someone very special,
Your smile will be engraved within my heart.
You're always be there,
I treasure the love Some-one set apart.
You left me with special memories you gave me,
And the day we were able to share.

By Breda O'Sullivan

FOLLOW YOUR DREAM.

Follow your dream
Where ever it leads
Don't be distracted
By less worthy needs.

Shelter it, nourish it,
Help it grow
Let your heart hold it
Deep down where dreams go.

Follow your dream
Pursue it with haste
Life is too precious
Too fleeting to waste.

Be faithful, be loyal
Then all your life through
The dream that you follow
Will keep coming through.

Class 1994-1999

So finally Scoil Mhuire is about to become a thing of the past, a closed chapter in our lives. Will there be tears? Nah!! On the last day we'll burn our uniforms that we, so love and adore, and say our final goodbyes to our teachers – okay maybe there will be tears, Sob!!! And our long awaited farewells to our enemies (life can only get better). Lets not forget those who were VERY friendly in the past – if you know what I'm saying. They taught us as much as the teachers. To our friends we say Au Revoir but hopefully they will endure us for a while longer. It is our friends who helped make us who we are and they share our memories in the BEST SCHOOL EVER!!!

Our boring memories may fade with time but others will remain everlasting (And boys I'm not just talking about rugby & drink). So what will we remember? The good times, the bad times, the laughs & tears. We all have our own recollection of our school days - which by the way just has to include the Hi-Land. A place where you could learn a thing or two, depending on how lucky you were (or how drunk)! The teachers just have to be remembered – yeah I know, what the hell am I talking about, but they helped get us where we are going – The Future. It's a scary place but with or without each other its where we're heading & where we gotta go!

Life is for living (Doh!)

Mary Howard-Bowles

ME AND MY BUDDIES

Noddy is off her head, but one-day she'll be confined to a hospital bed.
Next we have our Christine she is wonderful and very beautiful.
Eleanor is quiet and refined but underneath it all she's out of her mind.

Siobhan may be blonde but she's no bimbo, although at weekend's she's blind drunk and in limbo. Mary is quite scary and has platted her arm pits cos there so hairy. Suzanne is weak and a shimmy snake.

JAN is beautiful and nice but she'll burst your head if you look at her twice, but still I think she is the leader of the gang. Sharon is a beaut but a bit of a newt.

And last but not least is our friend Eileen as saintly and talented as Elizabeth the Queen.

THE FAMOUS ABBA IMPRESSION AT THE DEBS OCT. '98.

Personal Memories

Paul Cotter and Declan Barry disappearing out the window.

(Sarah O' Callaghan)

When Mrs Leahy fell off the chair in Junior Cert. When Mrs Farrell slid across the floor in room 4 in 3rd year during music class. In transition year when Molly (Tricia O'Sullivan) went red from lying in the sun. When Jolene said to Mr O'Shea there was hair on his head, April Fools day 1998.

(Sinéad O'Connor)

Brilliant crack at Cappanalea. This years awards ceremony when the flowers fell.

(Christina O'Donovan)

My favourite memory is when I was in 3rd year. We had Sr. Theresa. She was calling the roll and Cormac answered her instead of Mary Howard Bowles and when I was in 5th year, we had Mr O'Brien for English and one day Ann Cremin and Jolene Ambrose brought a stray dog into the class room, we all started laughing. Mr O'Brien did not know why and the dog ran towards the top of the room. Also the debs, it was the best crack I had in a long time.

(Breda O'Sullivan)

Throwing Pat out the back door of Sr. Theresa's 3rd year geography class.

(Timmy Murphy)

Beavis. Last day in 1st year.

(Mairead Collins)

Summer of 3rd year, Cappanalea and Sr. Theresa's classes in 3rd year.

(Mary Duggan)

Our Human Pyramids. Our pile-ups and the girls football and soccer matches.

(Eleanor Casey)

The debs was a terrific night and T.Y was brilliant. It was the best year I had in school and especially the week in Cappanalea.

(Linda O'Connell)

The fights in 2nd year outside rooms 27 and 28.

(John Murphy)

Beavis (nothing in particular-just Beavis) The last day of 1st year. The girls beating the crap out if each other. Pyramids.

(Breda O'Driscoll)

The retreat, not for a religious experience but for the pile-ups! The end of first year especially the last day and the fight. The debs. Pyramids and fights this year.

Siobhan and Pat's extra French grinds!

(Mary O'Brien)

Cappanalea.

(Niall Ahern)

Third year was brill with Sr. Theresa classes especially when Cormac, Pat and Tim did Bud- Weis- Er. We had car wash in 2nd year, which was really cool (and of course it was my idea). The summers were fun with the water fights and grass fights. The debs is memorable because of Paul Cotter, who started discussing MacBeth.

(Mary Howard Bowles)

Last day of first year, when we all got sent home! The human pyramids and the L.C. girls beating the crap out of each other.

(Grainne Carroll)

The first day nerves and hopefully the last day joy.

(David Scannell)

When I had to walk through town 'shamed' on my birthday handcuffed to Jan
Barry. Pile-ups in the back of the bus.

(Sinead O'Reilly)

Cappanalea in Transition year will always be a memory for me. The mini-company as it was a pure disaster trying to organise it. My most treasured memory is the debs as it was a brilliant night for all of us. 5th year and Leaving Cert will also be very important for me as it is where I have met some of my best friends.

(Michelle Lawrence)

When I fell through a window in second year. Our human pyramids and pile-ups.

(Suzanne Collins)

The debs- it was one terrific night, the crack was mighty.

(Norma Murphy)

Pat giving Siobhan French Oral lessons at the Rugby club.

(Julie O'Leary)

When I set the desk on fire in 2nd year with Colum Buckley during Mrs. Burkes English class. The rest are X-rated.

(Shane Dineen)

Someone psing in her pants in the green house. Above in the green house Molly putting baby oil on her legs and walking into school the following day like a duck.

Pile-ups.

(Anon)

Pile-ups, pyramids, burying T.Y.O.'s in the river after Junior Cert. Getting lost in Cappanalea

(Norita Duggan)

The last day of 1st year we had a major food fight in the yard with flour, eggs, fruit, and water. It was the best! The teachers were going mental.

(Nora Mc Sweeney)

Was not in school often enough.

(Tommy Quaid)

John O'Sullivan throwing Pat O'Connor out the back door of the prefab during Sr. Theresa's geography class in third year. Melanie snoring during Con O'Brien's history class in 2nd year. Brian Barry's version of the alphabet. The Leaving Cert year as a whole. We turned it into a doss year. Timmy Murphy trying to eat his soup at the debs with a fork.

(Majella McCarthy)

The day we got sent home in first year on the last day. Timmy "I'm fine" but really off his face. The transition year girls and others fighting.

(Sile Murphy)

All the crack I had with my buddies and our pile-ups.

(Christine Brosnan)

Sure I have.

(Cormac O'Keeffe)

Yes, Yes, oh I shall have memories.

(Michael Donovan)

1st year day of summer holidays. Sr. Theresa's Geography class in 3rd year. Island wood.

(Joanne Moylan)

Julie at the retreat remembers the washing powder.

(Siobhan Norton)

Sr. Theresa Geography class. Woodwork in 1st year.

(Siobhan Neville)

Being away so much.

(Willie O'Brien)

Brain gone dead.

(Alan O'Brien)

Sr. Theresa's classes.

(John O'Sullivan)

The debs and always having a laugh with Carmel Quirke during classes.

(Anita O'Dwyer)

Rocks under our tent at Cappanalea. Brian Barry falling out the door during Sr. Theresa class.

(Sarah O'Connor)

Can't remember.

(David Lawrence)

First year food fight.

(Nodhlaig O'Hanlon Barry)

Transition year when we were burying each other alive in the mud in the green house.

(Eileen Healy)

Timmy Murphy at the debs. Paul Cotter singing "liver" Cashman's.

(Pat O'Connor)

Last day of First year when we all got sent home for throwing eggs and other flour and destroyed the courts.

(Alan Brosnan)

Walking down the avenue in 1st year with Orla Duane passing a group of Leaving Certs as we walked under the tree we felt a dump on our heads.

(Helen Curtin)

Eileen hurting herself trying to get out of the bin.

(Janice Barry)

Thomas Quaid's first attempts to bleach his hair.

(Paul Cotter)

The strolls down to the old school at lunch times. Being sent home in first year because of the food fights.

(Karen Duly)

Being sent home on the day of the summer holidays in 1st year because of the food fight in the yard. Cappanalea was an unforgettable weekend what we lacked for in sleep we made up for in memories. I still see Timmy Murphy walking into the sitting room wearing a black bra.

(Catriona Guiney)

Teddy with 10 jackets on. The band-flowers falling onto of St Margaret.

(Joanne O'Connor)

All of Sr. Theresa's classes especially the day that John pushed pat out the door.

The sunny days before the summer holidays when we had no classes.

(Maria Buckley)

When "somebody else" broke the window in room 24.

(Christopher O'Mahony)

Cormac V's Willie in 3rd year.

(Jack O'Brien)

Timmy Murphy at the debs, Sr. Theresa's Geography classes.

(Tadhg Mc Kerring)

Rugby matches.

(Tim Brosnan)

Getting out of here.

(Jacqueline Healy)

1st year mess up, got sent home. Sr. Theresa's geography class in 3rd year.

(Caroline O'Regan)

Mr Crotty teaching me and my friends not to be messing in the woodwork room when we were in first year. Mr O'Keefe being very merry in the Hi-Land.

(Liam Fitzpatrick)

Sr. Theresa's birthday and Sr. Theresa's religion class and watching videos on Fatima.

(Aideen Duane)

Playing rugby for the school team.

(Colum Murphy)

The year spent with Sr. Theresa. John O'Sullivan throwing Pat O'Connor out the door in room 25 in Sr. Theresa's classes. Sr. Theresa's going away party.

(Mary Frances O'Keeffe)

The gym at breaks, the pub at lunch and finally home at 4.

(Willie O'Regan)

Trying to find room 8 (the gym) for my first P.E class and asking about 10 people.

(Michael Burke)

Amnesia.

(Timmy Sheehan)

MEMORIES.

*My memories have been instilled
Because of the laughter and chats that we had
It is the end of one chapter and the opening of another one.*

*A new entrance is beginning the entrance to a new life.
We have hopes and fears.
But yet it is exciting because there is a sense of happiness about to arise.*

*As we leave this place we will carry our memories.
We will carry our inspirations.
We dream of the future that lies ahead.
We dream of our destination as it guides us.*

*It is a journey about to begin there is a new road to take.
We will now enter the real world.
We will open the door.*

The sun will shine through.

*As I lie awake at night.
I see the moon shining through it tells me of a story
That our lives are going to be full of glory.
And full of love and truth.*
